Chapter 4: Specifications and allied technical details

1. OBJECTIVE OF SURVEY

Prime objective of the study is to assess the effective use of the facilities provided by the government by the senior citizens, capacity utilization and the quality of services /socio-cultural activities provided in the centres. Also, the benefits/outcome of the services in terms of its impact on the well being of the beneficiaries is also to be evaluated.

2. METHODOLOGY FOR SURVEY

As per the information provided by Department of Social Welfare, at present 108 recreation centres (exclusively for senior citizens) are getting grant in Delhi. To assess the utility of these centres from senior citizen point of view for passing their leisure time through social interaction, entertainment, reading books etc. two types of schedules are designed. One schedule is for obtaining views/feedback of beneficiaries i.e. senior citizens attending the recreation centre on the day of survey and another schedule is for in-charge closely associated with functioning of recreation centre. Besides this an observational schedule is also designed for getting the number of senior citizens availing the services of recreation centre on the day of survey during Morning/Noon/Evening hours. The photo of all centres will be taken during the survey and must be added in the report of evaluation study.

3. SAMPLING DESIGN

All 108 recreation Centres for senior citizens will be surveyed. At each Centre the All 108 recreation Centres for senior citizens will be surveyed. At each Centre the schedule for in-charge will be canvassed and another schedule will be canvassed with randomly selected 10 beneficiaries/senior citizens. At each recreation Centre, 10 beneficiaries will be canvassed randomly in the following manner:

Time Slot	Age Group 60-70 Years	Age Group More than 70 Years	Total
upto 12 O' Clock	2	1	3
12 Noon to 4.00 PM	2	1	3
After 4.00 PM	3	1	4
Total	7	3	10

Total 10 beneficiaries will be covered, if however, any of the beneficiary falls short in any age group than shortfall may be completed from another age-group mentioned above.

4. TIMELINES

The timelines of proposed survey will be as under:-

S. No.	Particular	Time	Time Cumulative
1.	Selection of Agency for evaluation study and signing of agreement	Within 1 month (From the date of inviting of bids)	One month
2.	Finalisation of Schedules (minor changes, if any) by Planning department as per discussion with agency	Within One week from the date of signing of agreement	1 month one week
3.	Survey of all recreation centres by the agency	Within One month from the finalisation of schedule	2 month one week
4.	Submission/Presentation of draft report before evaluation committee by the agency	Within One month from end of survey	3 months one week
5.	Providing of comments by the Planning Department on draft report to the agency	Within one week from receiving of comments on draft report from the Social Welfare Department in Planning Department	3 months two week
6.	Submission of Final Report by the agency in Planning Department	Within one week after furnishing of comments on draft report by Planning Department to the agency	3 months 3 weeks

5. SCHEDULES FOR SURVEY

Two types of schedules are prepared. Schedule I is for In-charge of Recreation Centre, who is closely associated with its functioning and is well aware of all implementation aspects of this scheme. The purpose of this schedule is to get feedback about source of resources for running the centres, availability of basic facilities, recreation services etc. Schedule II is meant for the beneficiaries/senior citizens availing the services of recreation centres to get their views about the type & quality of services available therein and their suggestions for improving utilization of such facilities. In addition, an Observational Schedule is also designed to know the quantum of beneficiaries- age-wise, sex-wise attending the recreation centre throughout the day of survey during morning/noon/evening hours.

Chapter 5: Price Schedule
